Fowler,

I told Kelly at Design It to go ahead with the design. They had some trouble with the first design because of too small of detail. They redesigned it some, as you saw. I thought it looked good. It won't be the official seal, though. They can't stitch in the official seal. We gotta go with what they gonna be able ta do.

I talked with Tamara yesterday about the gift for Ed's wife. We can always give her a souvenir folder, but that's kind of lame, I think, for a wedding present. I'm calling her in a second. ... Well, shit, the phone's busy. I'll let you know some other time. She said we could get her gold-plated earrings for about $30 that are shaped like a bent. Might as well go with that, man.
